The Director's Note...

Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you in the way you should go. Oh that you had paid attention to my commandments! Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea;" Isaiah 48:17-18 ESV

If I were to list the ways I have profited from my relationship with the Lord, I could easily fill a large book. According to this verse, our Heavenly Father makes it His business to profit us, or in other words, He instructs us for our benefit. My earthly father tried his best to instruct me, but often I chose to learn things the hard way. How I wish I had learned to just accept the truth of his teaching. Life might have been easier. God's desire for us is peace like a river, meaning peace that perpetually flows in us and through us. His will is that we have righteousness like the waves of the sea, covering our sin again and again. He is a good, good Father, and I am grateful I profit from following His commands.
